OBSERVATIONS

ON

THE EMIGRATION STATISTICS OF IRELAND

FOR THE YEAR 1895.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY GEORGE HENRY, EARL CADOGAN, K.G.,

Esq., Esq., Esq.,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I have the honour to submit detailed Tables regarding Emigration from Ireland during the year 1895, showing by Sexes, the ages, occupations, and civil or conjugal condition of the Emigrants, with the ports at which they embarked, and their intended destinations. Emigration from Irish Ports.

The number of Emigrants who left Irish ports in 1895 was 48,934, or 10·7 per 1,000 of the estimated population of Ireland in the middle of the year, being an increase of 12,975 as compared with the number in 1894, which was the lowest for any year since the collection of these returns commenced in 1851. The number of males who emigrated last year was 21,572, or 6,209 more than in the previous year, and of females, 27,362 an increase of 6,766.

Of the 48,934 Emigrants in 1895, 48,703 were natives of Ireland, and 231 were persons belonging to other countries.

The following Table (I.) gives the number of Emigrants from each province in 1894 and 1895, by sexes, with the increase in the latter year. Of the 48,703 persons—natives of Ireland—who left the country in 1895, 4,923, or 4·1 per 1,000 of the population of the Province in 1891, were from Leinster; 22,176, or 18·9 per 1,000, from Munster; 8,109, or 5·0 per 1,000, from Ulster; and 13,495, or 18·6 per 1,000, from Connaught—the total number being equal to 10·4 per 1,000 of the population of Ireland in 1891.

Comparing 1895 with 1894, Leinster exhibits an increase of 7, Munster an increase of 5,877, Ulster an increase of 1867, and Connaught an increase of 5,057 emigrants.

The total number of Emigrants—natives of Ireland—who left Irish ports from the 1st of May, 1851 (the date at which the collection of these returns commenced), to the 31st of December, 1895, is 3,651,128,—1,917,075 males and 1,734,053 females. The number for each year is given in the following Table (II.), from which it appears that the highest number in any one year was 190,322 in 1852, the lowest 35,895 in 1891, and the second lowest, 37,587, in 1876. In the decade preceding the latter year (from 1886 to 1895), the average annual number of Emigrants was 74,667; in the decade, 1836 to 1865, the average number per annum amounted to 88,272, and in the four preceding years, from 1852 to 1855, the number averaged 148,985 annually. After 1876 the number increased steadily but slowly for three years to 88,503 in 1877, 41,124 in 1878, and 47,065 in 1879. In 1880 the number rose to 95,517, but it fell to 78,417 in 1881. In 1882, however, an increase of 10,719 took place, and there was a further increase in 1883, in which year the emigrants amounted to 108,724; then a decrease of 32,860 took place in 1884 compared with 1883, and a decrease of 13,829 in 1885 compared with 1884, followed by an increase of 1,101 in 1886, and a further increase of 19,798 in 1887, in which year the number was 82,923. After 1887 there was a gradual annual decline to 35,895, the number for 1894, and as already stated, this number was exceeded by 12,975 last year.

Number of Emigrants from each County and Province.

The succeeding Table (III.) is in continuation of one published annually for some years past, and gives the number and sex of the Emigrants from each county and province from the 1st of May, 1851, to the 31st of December, 1895. For purposes of comparison of the several counties and provinces the per-centage of emigrants to the population† is also shown.

From this Table it appears that during the above period 2,688,999 persons emigrated from Irish ports. Of these, 2,651,128 were natives of Ireland, and 37,871 were persons belonging to other countries. The former number (2,651,128) represents a proportion of 66.0 per cent. of the average population;‡ Munster having contributed 1,271,965 persons, being equal to 87.4 per cent. of the average population of the province; Connaught, 556,342, or 64.4 per cent.; Ulster, 1,046,798, or 57.4 per cent.; and Leinster, 665,418, equivalent to 47.9 per cent. of its population.† In 110,568 instances the county from which the persons came was not specified in the returns; since 1876, however, this information has been given in every instance, with the exception of 53 cases in 1880.

† Calculated on an average of the Census Numbers for 1831, 1861, 1871, 1881, and 1891.

Ages of Emigrants.

The ages of the Emigrants are given by Provinces in the following Table (IV.), from which it appears that 84·7 per cent. of the persons who left Ireland in 1895 were between the ages of fifteen and thirty-five years, the percentage over that age being 8·7, and of children under fifteen years 6·6: in 2 cases, the ages were unspecified. The corresponding percentages in 1894 for the three age-periods given above were 83·1, 9·0, and 7·9 respectively. The proportion of the Emigrants in 1893 who were from fifteen to thirty-five years of age was 85·0; in 1892 it was 83·2; in 1891, 82·5; in 1890, 81·0; in 1889, 79·7; in 1888, 80·1; in 1887, 79·8; in 1886, 78·1; in 1885, 75·2; in 1884, 70·5; in 1883, 67·9; in 1882, 74·3; in 1881, 76·0; and in 1880, 75·7 per cent.

Ages of Emigrants.

On pages 8 and 9 will be found a Table showing the ages of persons who emigrated from each county, and of persons belonging to other countries who embarked at Irish ports, distinguishing the sexes and conjugal condition. The only quinquennial age-periods in which the females greatly outnumbered the males are those between fifteen and twenty and between twenty and twenty-five, in the former of which the number of females was 5,977, and of males 1,993, and in the latter of which the number of females was 12,194 and of males 8,383. The quinquennial period 20-25 years furnished the largest number of both male and female emigrants—being 42·1 per cent. of the entire number of emigrants.

Conjugal condition.

Of the 21,572 males who emigrated, 2,118, or 9·8 per cent., were returned as married men or widowers, and of the 27,362 females enumerated, 3,198, or 11·7 per cent., were described as married or widowed. Of the 7,970 persons between the ages of 15 and 20 years, 5 only were married, all females.

Destinations of Emigrants.

Of the 46,234 natives of Ireland who emigrated in 1895, 46,948, or 96·4 per cent., went to the Colonies or to Foreign Countries; and 1,755, or 3·6 per cent., to Great Britain. The United States of America absorbed 45,298, or 98·0 per cent., of the number of native emigrants in 1895, compared with an average of 44,290, or 91·1 per cent., for the four preceding years. The number of emigrants to New Zealand, which had fallen from 322 in 1887 to 87 in 1888, rose to 90 in 1889, and to 126 in 1890, and also showed a small increase in 1891, when 145 persons left for that Colony, but fell to 101 in 1892 and to 94 in 1893; in 1894, it rose again to 114, but fell to 93 in 1895. Emigration to Canada shows an increase in 1895 compared with 1894, the numbers being 732 in 1895, and 540 in 1894. The emigrants to Australia numbered 629 in 1895, against 457 in 1894, 511 in 1893, 1,216 in 1892, 1,821 in 1891, 2,338 in 1890, 3,038 in 1889, 3,110 in 1888, and 3,896 in 1887. Of the 196 persons who went to "Other Countries" last year, 7 went to France, 1 to Belgium, 24 to Buenos Ayres, 178 to South Africa, 4 to India, 1 to "South America," and 1 to China.

Of the 45,298 emigrants to the United States in 1895, Munster contributed 21,115, Connaught 13,039, Ulster 6,972, and Leinster 4,172. Leinster contributed 240 of the 629 who left for Australia. Ulster furnished the largest contingent to Canada—482 out of a total of 732; Munster contributed 41 out of the 93 for New Zealand, Leinster furnishing 28.

As before stated, 1,755 persons left Ireland in 1895 with the intention of settling permanently in Great Britain; of these, 1,107 left for England or Wales, and 648 for Scotland, the averages for the four preceding years being 1,315 and 937, respectively. More than 61 per cent. of the number who went to England and Wales were Munster people, and of the 648 who went to Scotland, no less than 515 were from the Province of Ulster, 158 of these being natives of the County of Antrim.

It may be well to add that the enumerators are instructed to make a return for each passenger ship which may sail from any port within their district, and that by "emigrant" is to be understood a person who leaves Ireland with the intention of settling elsewhere.
